Every parent should stand up for Janet Howell.

Janet Howell fought for autism coverage for Virginia families. Thanks to Janet's efforts, insurance companies are now required by law to provide coverage to autistic children. It wasn't easy taking on the big insurance companies, but Janet was committed and wouldn't rest until the work was done.

Janet Howell keeps our kids safe. Janet has led the fight to strengthen penalties for child sexual abuse and established the first in the nation online sex-offender registry. The Virginia Sheriffs and Chiefs of Police have repeatedly honored Janet for making sure local police have adequate funding.

Autism and Our Families:

- Autism affects 1 in 110 children and 1 in 70 boys (www.autismspeaks.org).
- Almost half of children with autism who receive early intervention achieve normal levels of functioning (jlarc.virginia.gov).
